User Guide to the Docket for the Alaskan Seafood Processing Effluent Limitations Guidelines Notice of Availability of Data and Information

EPA Docket Number EPA-HQ-OW-2013-0652 (www.regulations.gov)

November 2013

1.0 OVERVIEW

Under the Clean Water Act (CWA), EPA establishes technology-based national regulations, termed "effluent limitations guidelines and standards," to reduce pollutant discharges from categories of industrial facilities to waters of the United States. Under the CWA, EPA similarly establishes technology-based regulations, termed "pretreatment standards" to reduce indirect pollutant discharges from industrial facilities to waters of the United States.

This document provides information on the docket supporting the Notice of Availability of Data and Information for the Alaskan Seafood Processing Effluent Limitations Guidelines. See the Federal Register Notice, 78 Federal Register 66916 7 November 2013). EPA has prepared a subject outline of the documents included in this docket to help you locate documents that address related topics or subjects. The subject outline for the docket is provided in Attachment 1. Attachment 2 is a complete record index for all of the documents supporting the Notice of Availability of Data and Information for the Alaskan Seafood Processing Effluent Limitations Guidelines listed by subject. Attachment 3 is the record index and crosswalk to the corresponding Regulations.gov Document ID Numbers.

2.0 BACKGROUND INFORMATION ON THE DOCKET

What is the Docket and How Can I Gain Access to It?

Docket ID No. EPA-HQ-OW-2013-0652 is the official docket for EPA's Alaskan Seafood Processing Effluent Limitations Guidelines Notice of Availability of Data and Information (NODA). The official docket consists of the documents specifically referenced, any public comments received, and other related information supporting this action. Although it is a part of the official docket, Confidential Business Information (CBI) or other information whose disclosure is restricted by statute is not included in the materials available to the public.

The official public docket is the collection of electronic and hard copy materials that is available for public viewing at the Water Docket in the EPA Docket Center, (EPA/DC), located in EPA West Building, Room Number 3334, 1301 Constitution Ave., NW, Washington, DC. An electronic version of the public docket is available through a federal-wide electronic docket management system located at www.regulations.gov.

You may use the Regulations.gov web site to view and/or submit public comments, access a listing of the contents of the official docket, and access those documents in the public docket that are available electronically. Certain documents are not available in the electronic docket system. These documents include but are not limited to copyright-protected material; physical objects such as maps, aerial photographs, colored charts; databases; and information claimed confidential. Although not all docket materials may be available electronically, you may still access any of the publicly-available docket materials at the EPA Docket Center.

Can I retrieve information that has been claimed "Confidential Business Information?"

The docket contains some documents that contain CBI. CBI documents are not available for review by the public, and are not filed in the Water Docket in the EPA Docket Center. Some documents are classified as CBI because companies providing the information specifically claimed certain information (e.g., operating or financial data) as CBI. Other documents are classified as CBI because release of these documents could indirectly reveal information claimed to be confidential.

3.0 ACCESSING INFORMATION IN THE DOCKET

How Do I Find Documents in the Docket?

Water Docket in the EPA Docket Center

The official public docket is the collection of electronic and hard copy materials that is available for public viewing at the Water Docket in the EPA Docket Center, (EPA/DC), located in the EPA West Building, Room Number 3334, 1301 Constitution Ave., NW, Washington, DC. The Public Reading Room is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding legal holidays. The telephone number for the Public Reading Room is (202) 566–1744, and the telephone number for the Water Docket is (202) 566–2426. You can also contact the Water Docket via e-mail: OW-Docket@epa.gov.

Regulations.gov

You will find instructions for using Regulations.gov on its Internet home page. Regulations.gov provides limited electronic search capabilities. If you know the Document ID Number (e.g., EPA-HQ-OW-2013-0652-0002) of the document you wish to view, you can type that number directly into the field beneath the "Enter Keyword or ID."

If you do not know the specific Document ID Number, you can input the docket identification number (EPA-HQ-OW-2013-0652) in the field beneath the "Enter Keyword or ID" heading and click Search. You will now see a listing of the contents of the official docket in the public record. The listing includes the Document Title (e.g., "Report to the Record: Profile of the Alaska Seafood Processing Industry -DCN00412"), Document ID Number (e.g., EPA-HQ-OW-2013-0652-0002), Date Posted (e.g., "11/07/2013"), Document Type (e.g., "Notice"), and other information.

You have several options to narrow your search within the docket listing by using the filters under the "Select Document Type" field. For example, you can specify the Document Type (e.g., Public Submissions, Notices, or Rules) as well as status (e.g. Open for Comment/Submission).

How are Documents Organized in the EPA-HQ-OW-2013-0652 Docket?

Each document in the docket has two document identification numbers. One is the Regulations.gov Document ID Number (e.g., EPA-HQ-OW-2013-0652 -0002) that was assigned when EPA added the document to the official docket. The last four digits are the unique consecutively assigned Regulations.gov Document ID. The second is EPA's internal document control number (DCN) that was assigned during the development of the NODA (e.g., DCN 00412). In documents prepared for the docket, EPA typically identified references by their EPA DCN. The DCN appears at the end of the document titles in the Document Title field listed in Regulations.gov (e.g., "Report to the Record: Profile of the Alaska Seafood Processing Industry -DCN00412”).

What is the Docket EPA-HQ-OW-2013-0652 Subject Index?

The docket EPA-HQ-OW-2013-0652 subject index, available as Attachment 2 to this document, is a list of documents in the docket, sorted by the subject outline section. The subject index summarizes certain information for each document, including the subject outline section, Regulations.gov Document ID Number, EPA DCN, document title, author, and abstract. EPA assigned each document to a subject outline section during the development of the document.

The subject index for the docket includes the following fields:

Field Name	Description
Record Section	Section number from docket outline.
EPA Docket Number (Regulations.gov Document ID Number)	Unique document number assigned when EPA added the document to the official docket. The Document ID Number includes the Docket Number followed by a consecutive document number.
Title	Title of document.
Document Type	Type of supporting and related materials.
Author	Author of document.
Author Date	Date of publication, issue, edition, or version. Actual date of meeting or telephone call.
Copyrighted	(Checked T if Yes) - Materials that are copyright protected (e.g., books and other published material). These documents are not available through Regulations.gov but are only available in hard copy at the EPA Docket Center.
CBI	Confidential Business Information (Yes/No). CBI is not available to the public.
DCN	Unique document control number (DCN) assigned by EPA during the development of the proposed rulemaking.

How Do I Use the Subject Listing to Find Documents in the Docket?

Review the subject outline to determine which section may contain the documents of interest. Then, locate documents for that section in the index and note their Regulations.gov Document ID Number. Documents available electronically can be accessed through Regulations.gov. Other documents can be reviewed at the Water Docket in the EPA Docket Center in Washington, DC. See information on the Water Docket above. You may also be able to locate copyright protected materials (for example, articles from technical publications) at an academic or public library.
