

OAQPS Small Business Assistance Program (SBAP) LISTSERV OPERATIONS
(As of 6/7/2022)

- What is the purpose for this listserv?
 - The purpose for this listserv is to keep Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards (OAQPS) small business stakeholders engaged and updated on OAQPS air-related regulatory actions and guidance that may impact small businesses.
- Who is managing the listserv?
 - OAQPS Outreach and Information Division, Community and Tribal Programs Group (CTPG) is the manager of this listserv.
 - CTPG leads OAQPS SBAP and all small business outreach.
- How to join and leave the listserv?
 - To subscribe, send an email to: join-oaqps_small_business_outreach@lists.epa.gov
 - To unsubscribe, send an email to: leave-oaqps_small_business_outreach@lists.epa.gov
- Who can join this listserv?
 - Anyone with small business interests is encouraged to join (including tribal leaders/members and environmental justice stakeholders.)
- How frequently will you email?
 - An email will be sent as soon as air-related regulatory actions and guidance have been signed and made public. This will allow recipients as much time to engage with EPA on such actions in a timely matter, when necessary.
 - For further information, we will provide a weblink at the end of each email with key information, reminders of where to find resources and other pertinent information.
- What type of small business regulatory and programmatic content will be distributed via the listserv?
 - Air regulatory actions and guidance (e.g., signed and/or published regulatory actions)
 - Training opportunities
 - Webinar opportunities
 - Listening sessions and public hearings
 - Resources
- Who can share/send information through the SB email listserv?
 - Only the listserv's administrators can share information.
- Who will view the list of subscribers?
 - Only the email administrators can view the list of subscribers.
 - The list of subscribers will not be shared outside OAQPS.
