Amy's Kitchen recalls several products for possible Listeria contamination

(JUNEAU, AK) – Amy's Kitchen, Inc. has issued a recall for several products because the products contain spinach that may be contaminated with Listeria monocytogenes.

Listeria monocytogenes can cause listeriosis, an uncommon but potentially fatal disease. Healthy people rarely contract listeriosis. However, those that do contract it could experience high fever, severe headache, neck stiffness and nausea. Listeriosis can also cause miscarriages and stillbirths, as well as serious and sometimes fatal infections in those with weakened immune systems, such as infants, the elderly and persons with HIV infection or undergoing chemotherapy. People experiencing these symptoms should seek immediate medical attention.

The recalled products may be identified by the UPC numbers and lot codes positioned on the back and sides of the product package.

After the birth of our daughter Amy in 1987 we found there was little time to prepare the wholesome nutritious food we normally ate. Realizing there were others like ourselves, we set up Amy's Kitchen to produce delicious, nourishing frozen meals for health-conscious people too busy to cook.
We use only the finest natural and organic ingredients and prepare them with the same careful attention in our kitchen as you would in your own home. No meat, fish, shellfish, poultry, eggs or peanuts are ever used in any Amy's products.

Generous portions of tofu scrambled with organic tender spinach, carrots and mushrooms along with hash browned potatoes make up this dish, which is simply too delicious to miss. And of course Amy's Tofu Scramble with hash browns & veggies makes a great breakfast, quick lunch or dinner. Amy's grandma, who doesn't own a microwave, adds a bit of olive oil to a skillet and heats her breakfast that way.
