

STATUS OF STATE IMPLEMENTATION PLAN (SIP)

Nick Czarnecki

ANPMS Program Manager

Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation

November 22, 2022

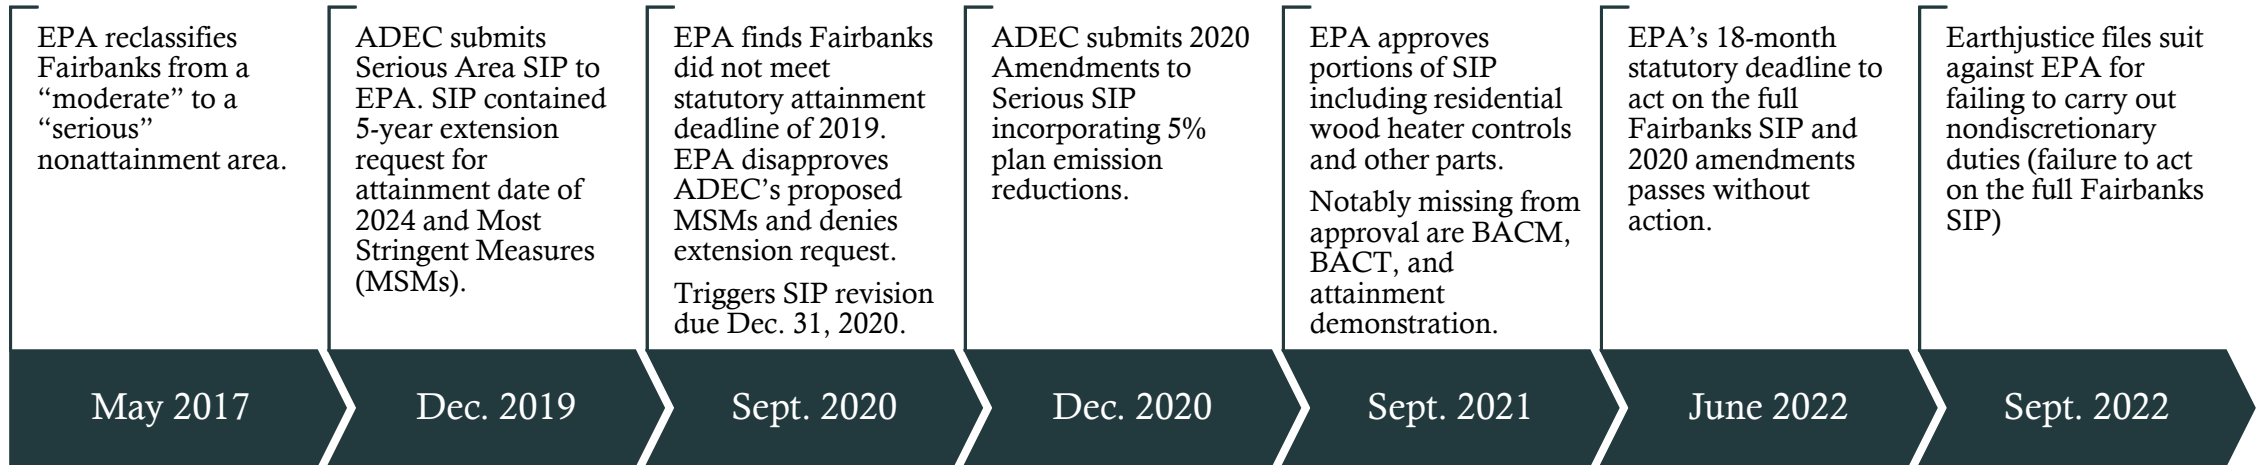

OVERVIEW

- Timeline
- Important SIP Dates
- Where are we now?
- What happens next?
- New Standard

IMPORTANT SIP DATES

WHERE ARE WE NOW?

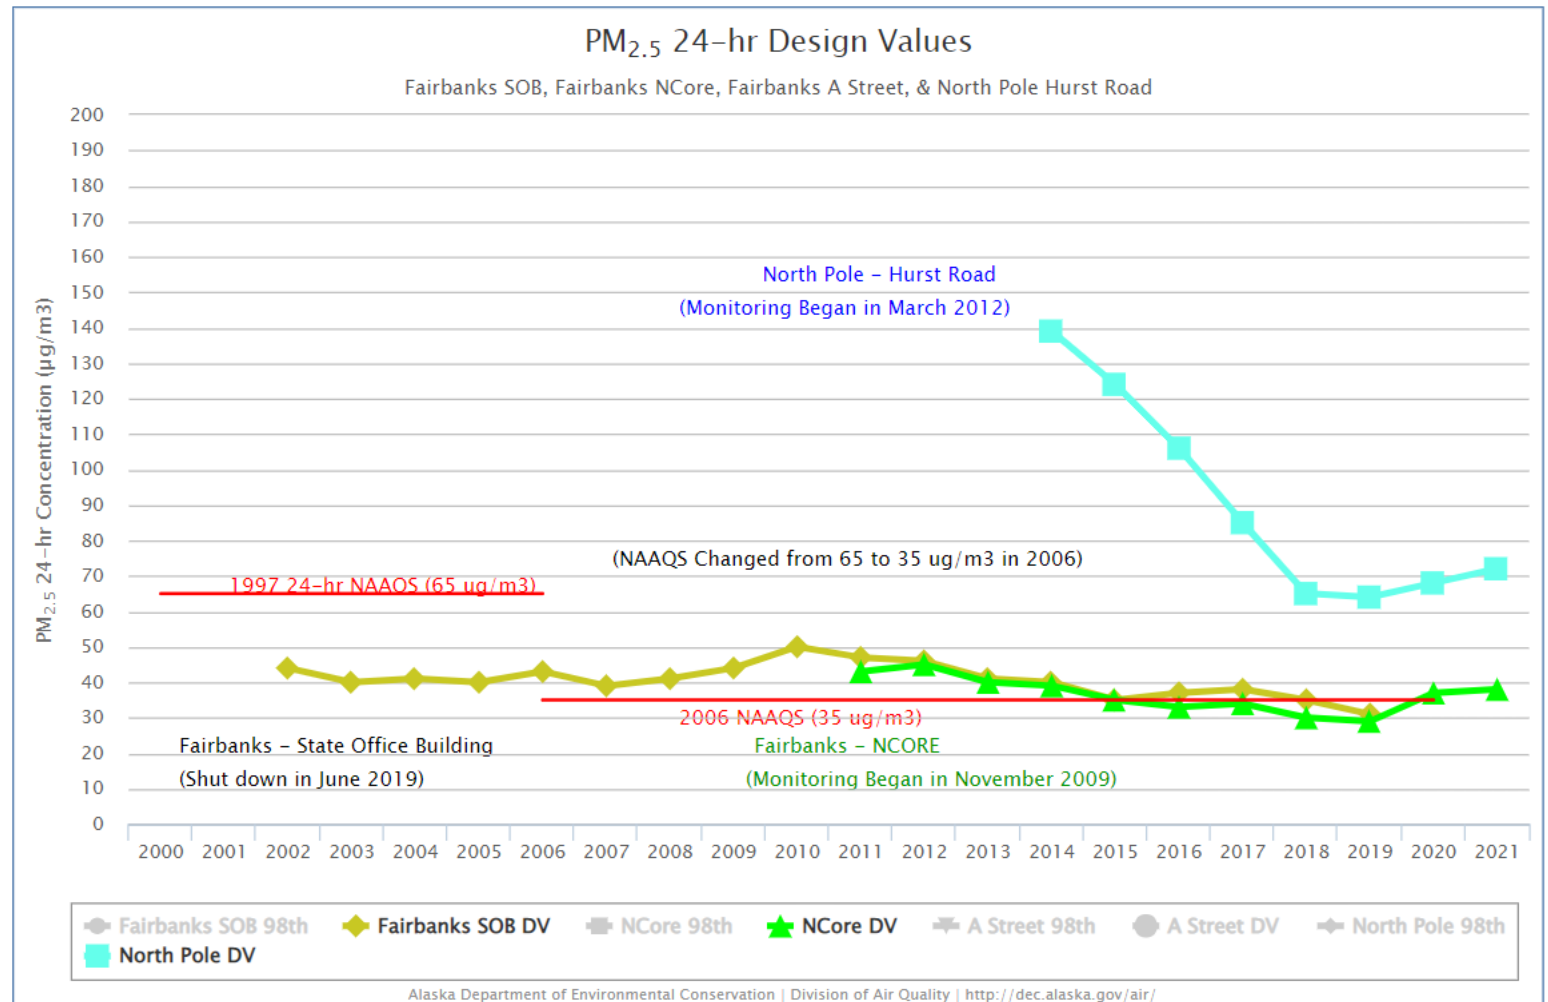

- Ball is in EPA's court
- EPA will propose one of three determinations for the Fairbanks Area Serious SIP and 2020 Amendments
 - Full Approval
 - Partial Approval/Partial Disapproval
 - Full Disapproval
- When determination is proposed, public comment period will be provided.
- After comments are considered, EPA will publish a final action.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

- EPA finalizes full approval
 - Need to monitor attainment by 2024, or new SIP
 - EPA finalizes partial approval/partial disapproval, or full disapproval
 - Conformity freeze begins at final finding
 - Sanctions clock and FIP clock start at final finding
 - 2:1 offset sanction imposed in 18 months
 - Loss of federal highway funds imposed in 24 months
 - FIP imposed in 24 months
 - Sanction and FIP clock can only be stopped by a fully approved SIP amendment
 - Need to monitor attainment by 2024, or new SIP
 - EPA proposing new PM_{2.5} NAAQS
 - If standards are lowered, new nonattainment designation triggering a separate SIP
-

NEW STANDARD?

QUESTIONS?