

Source: Teck Cominco Alaska (2002)

Figure 1-5. Mineralization map for Red Dog Mining District

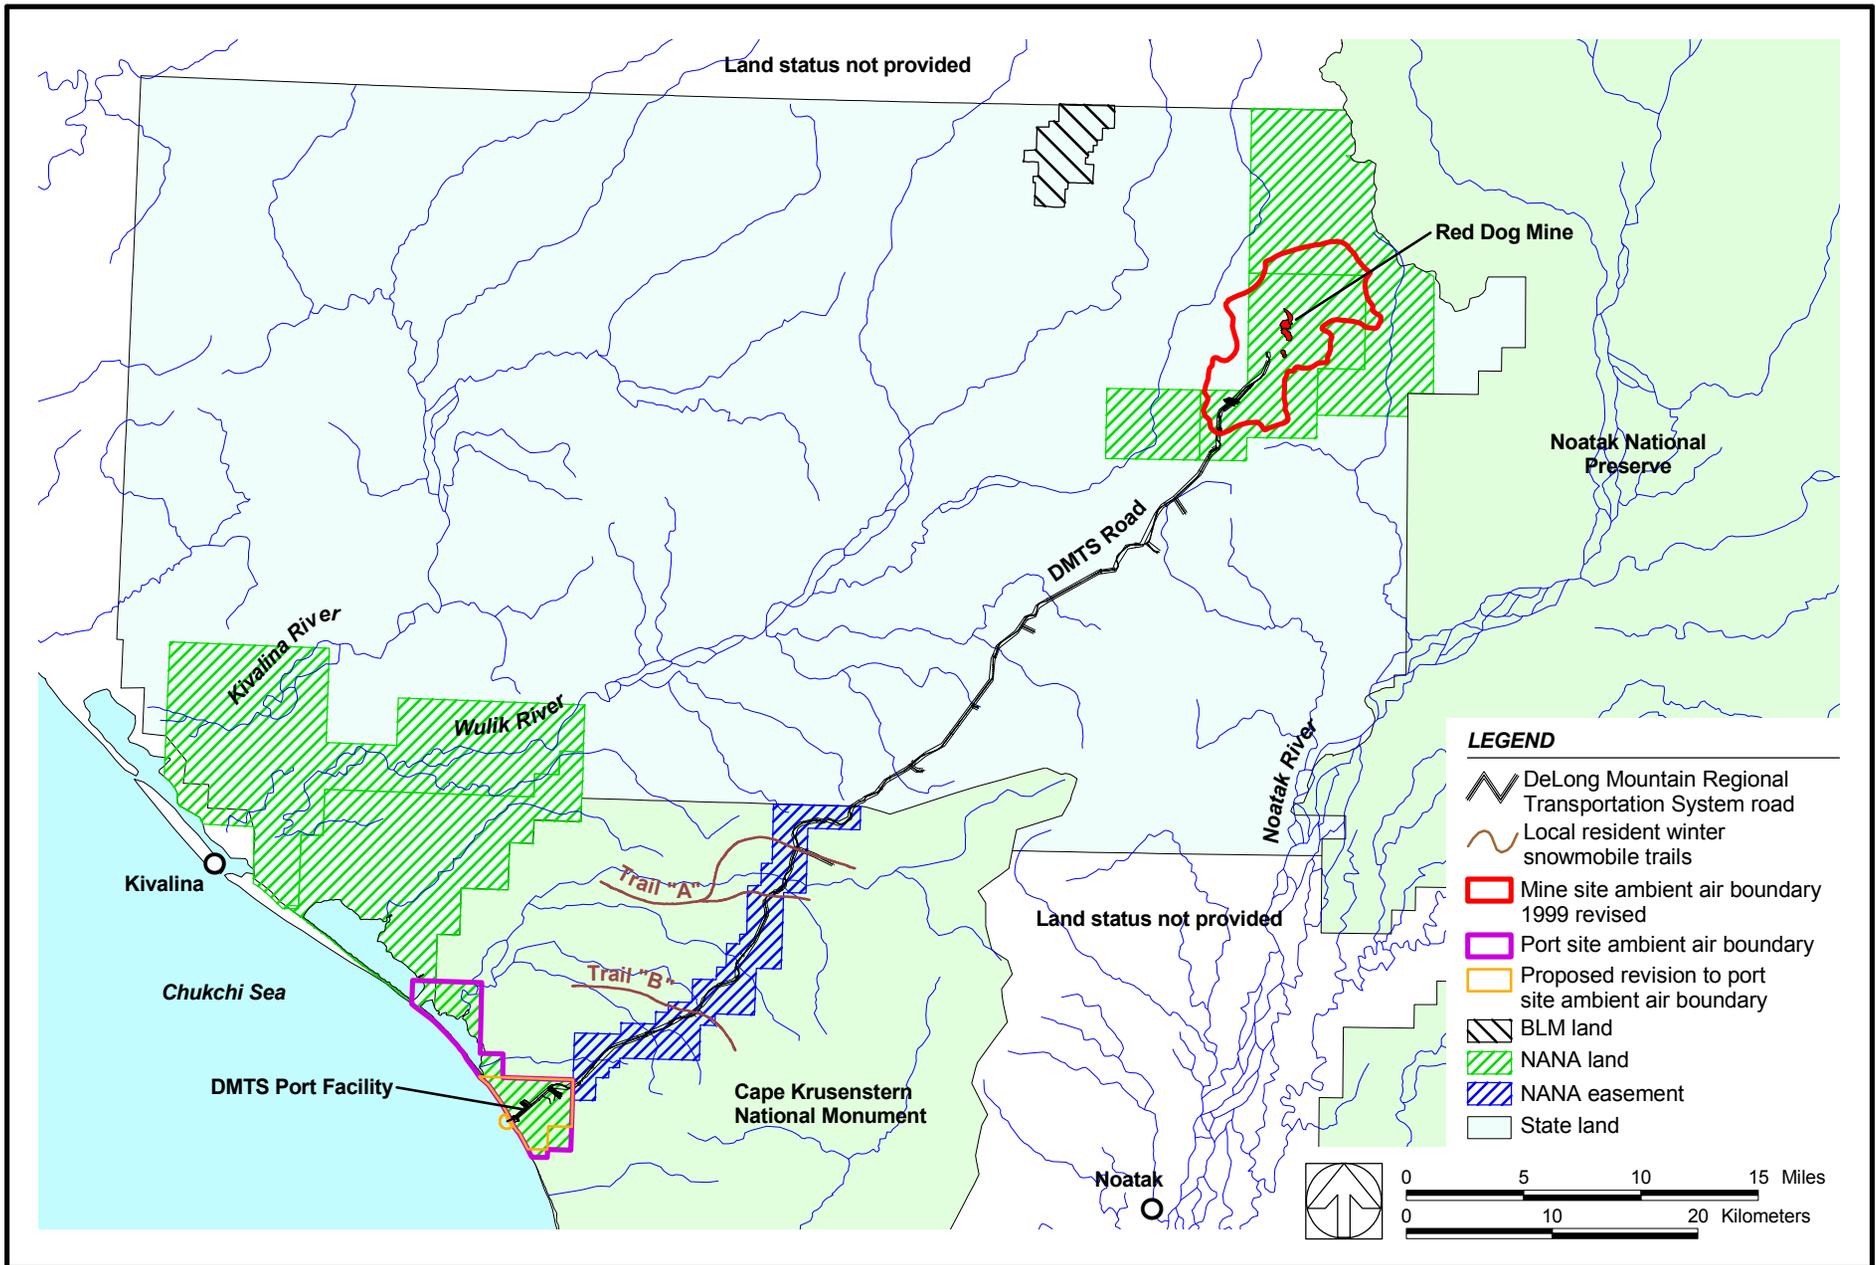

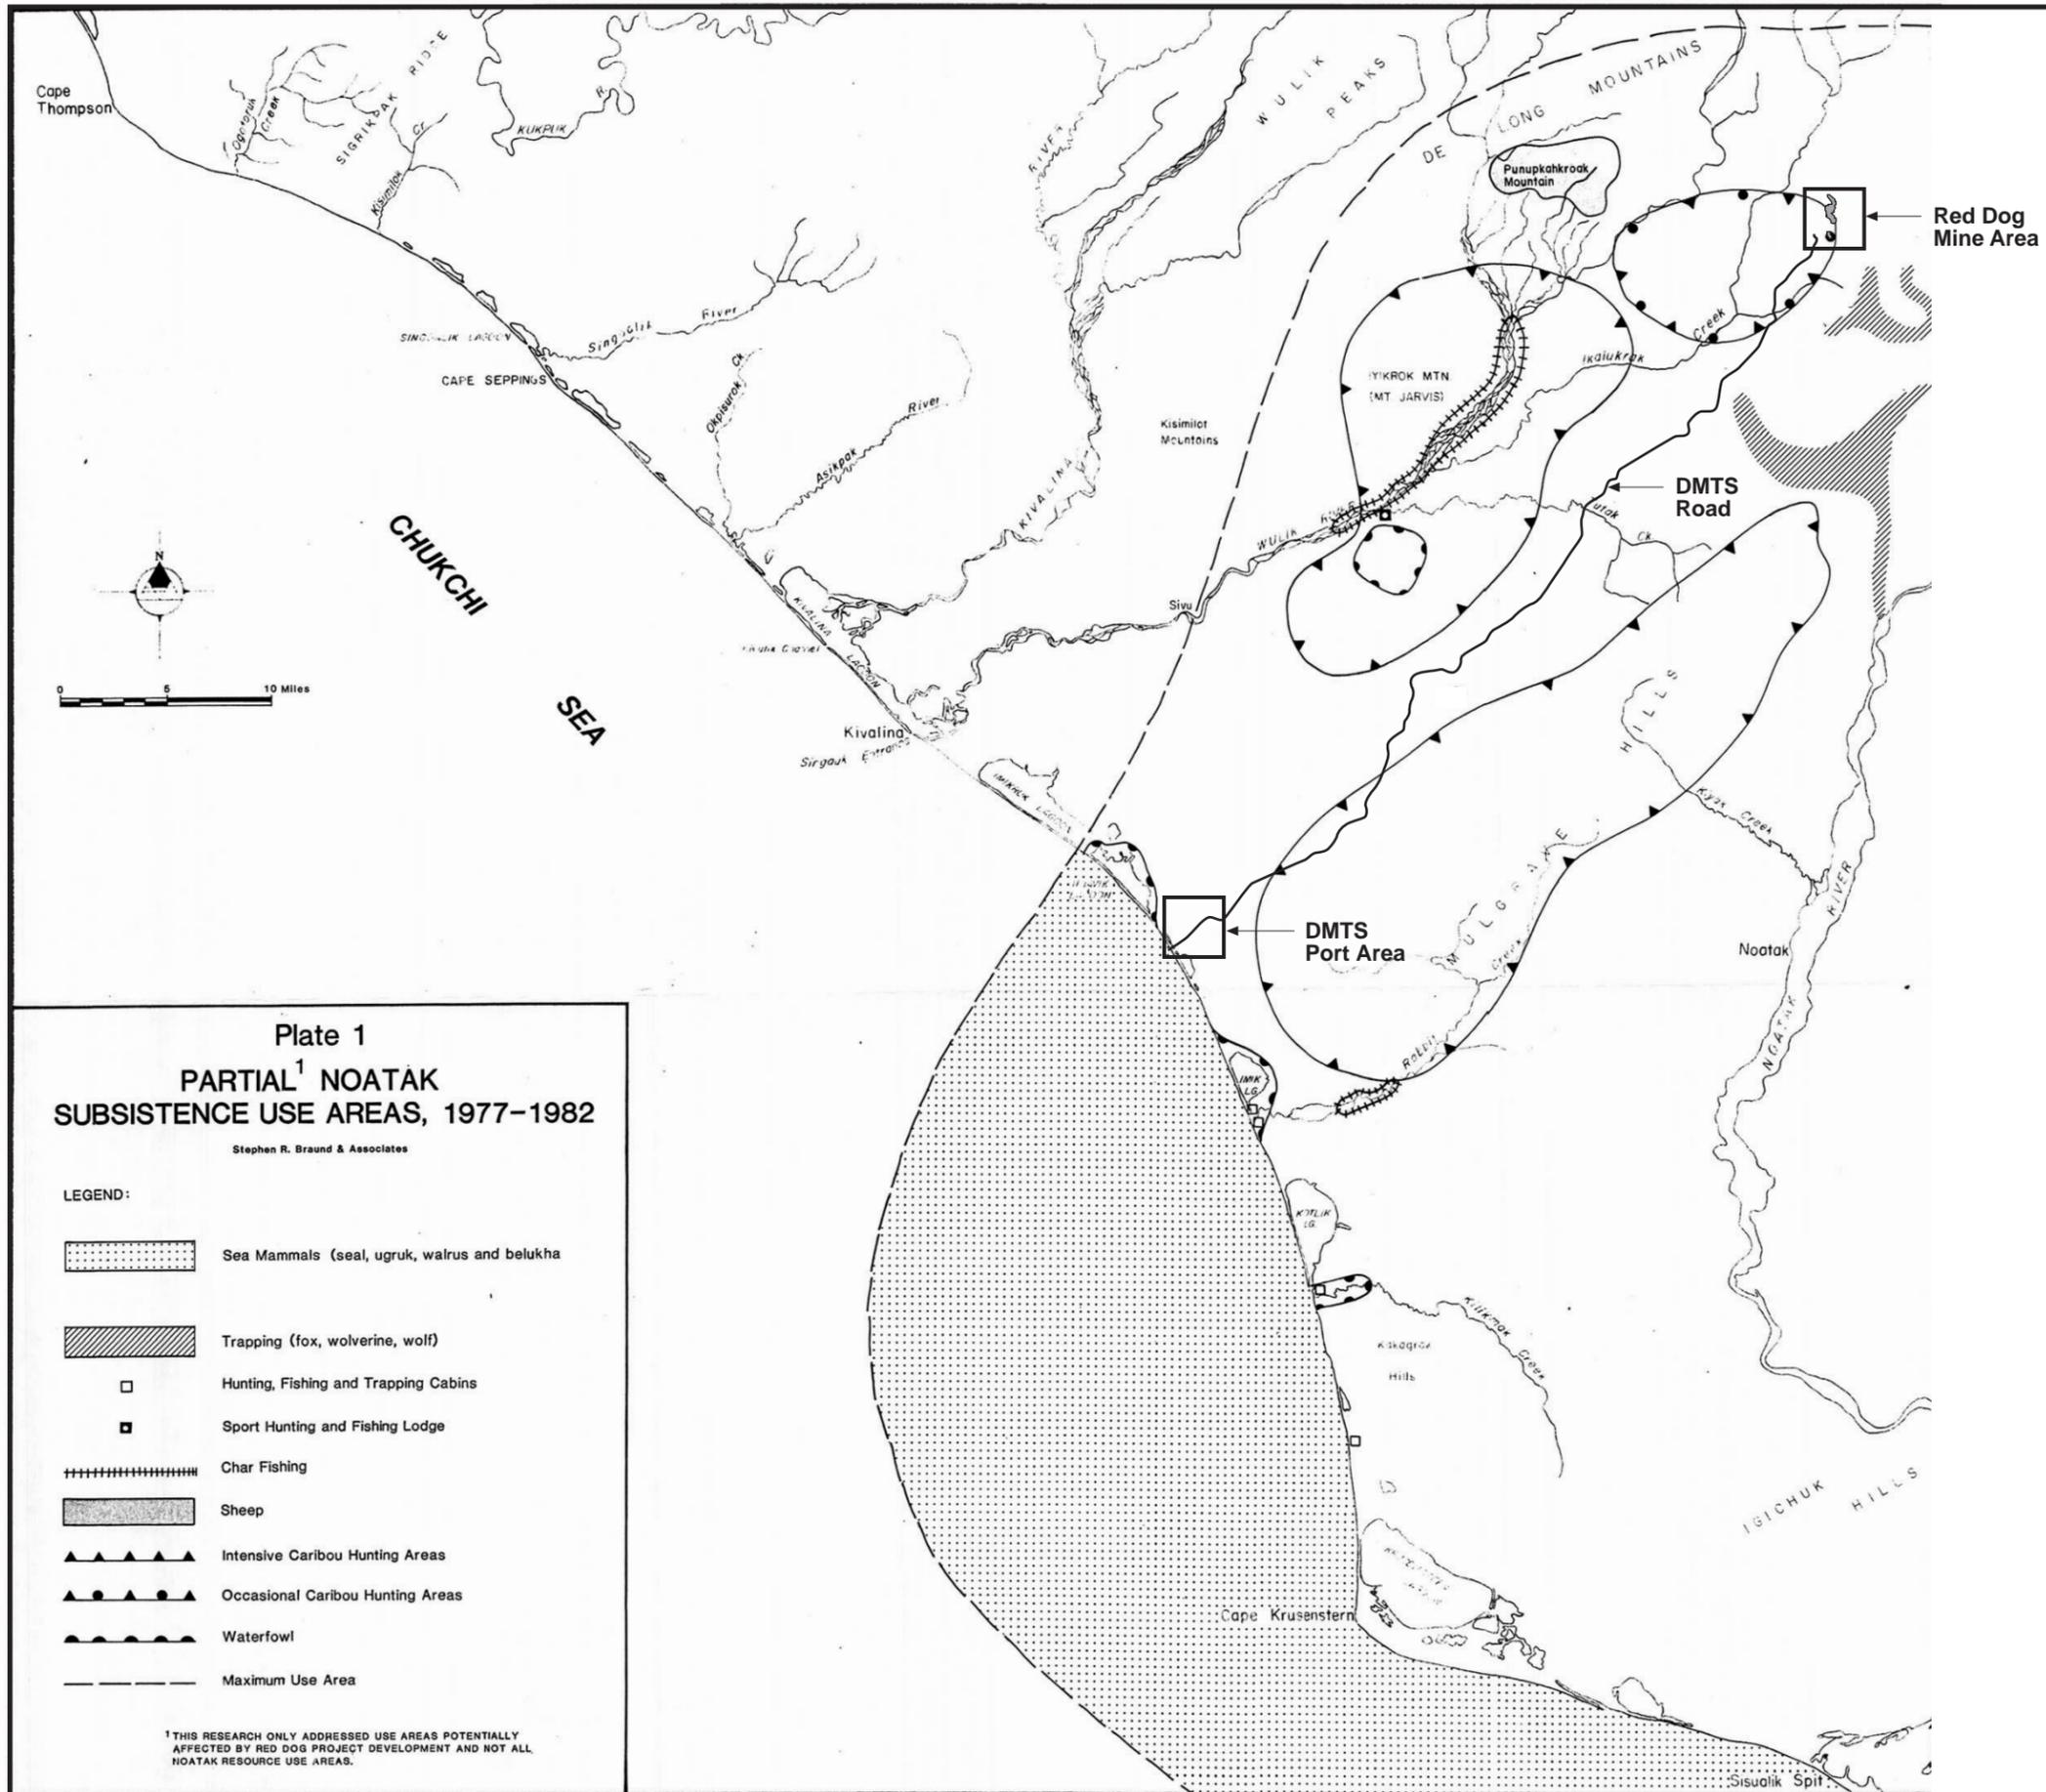

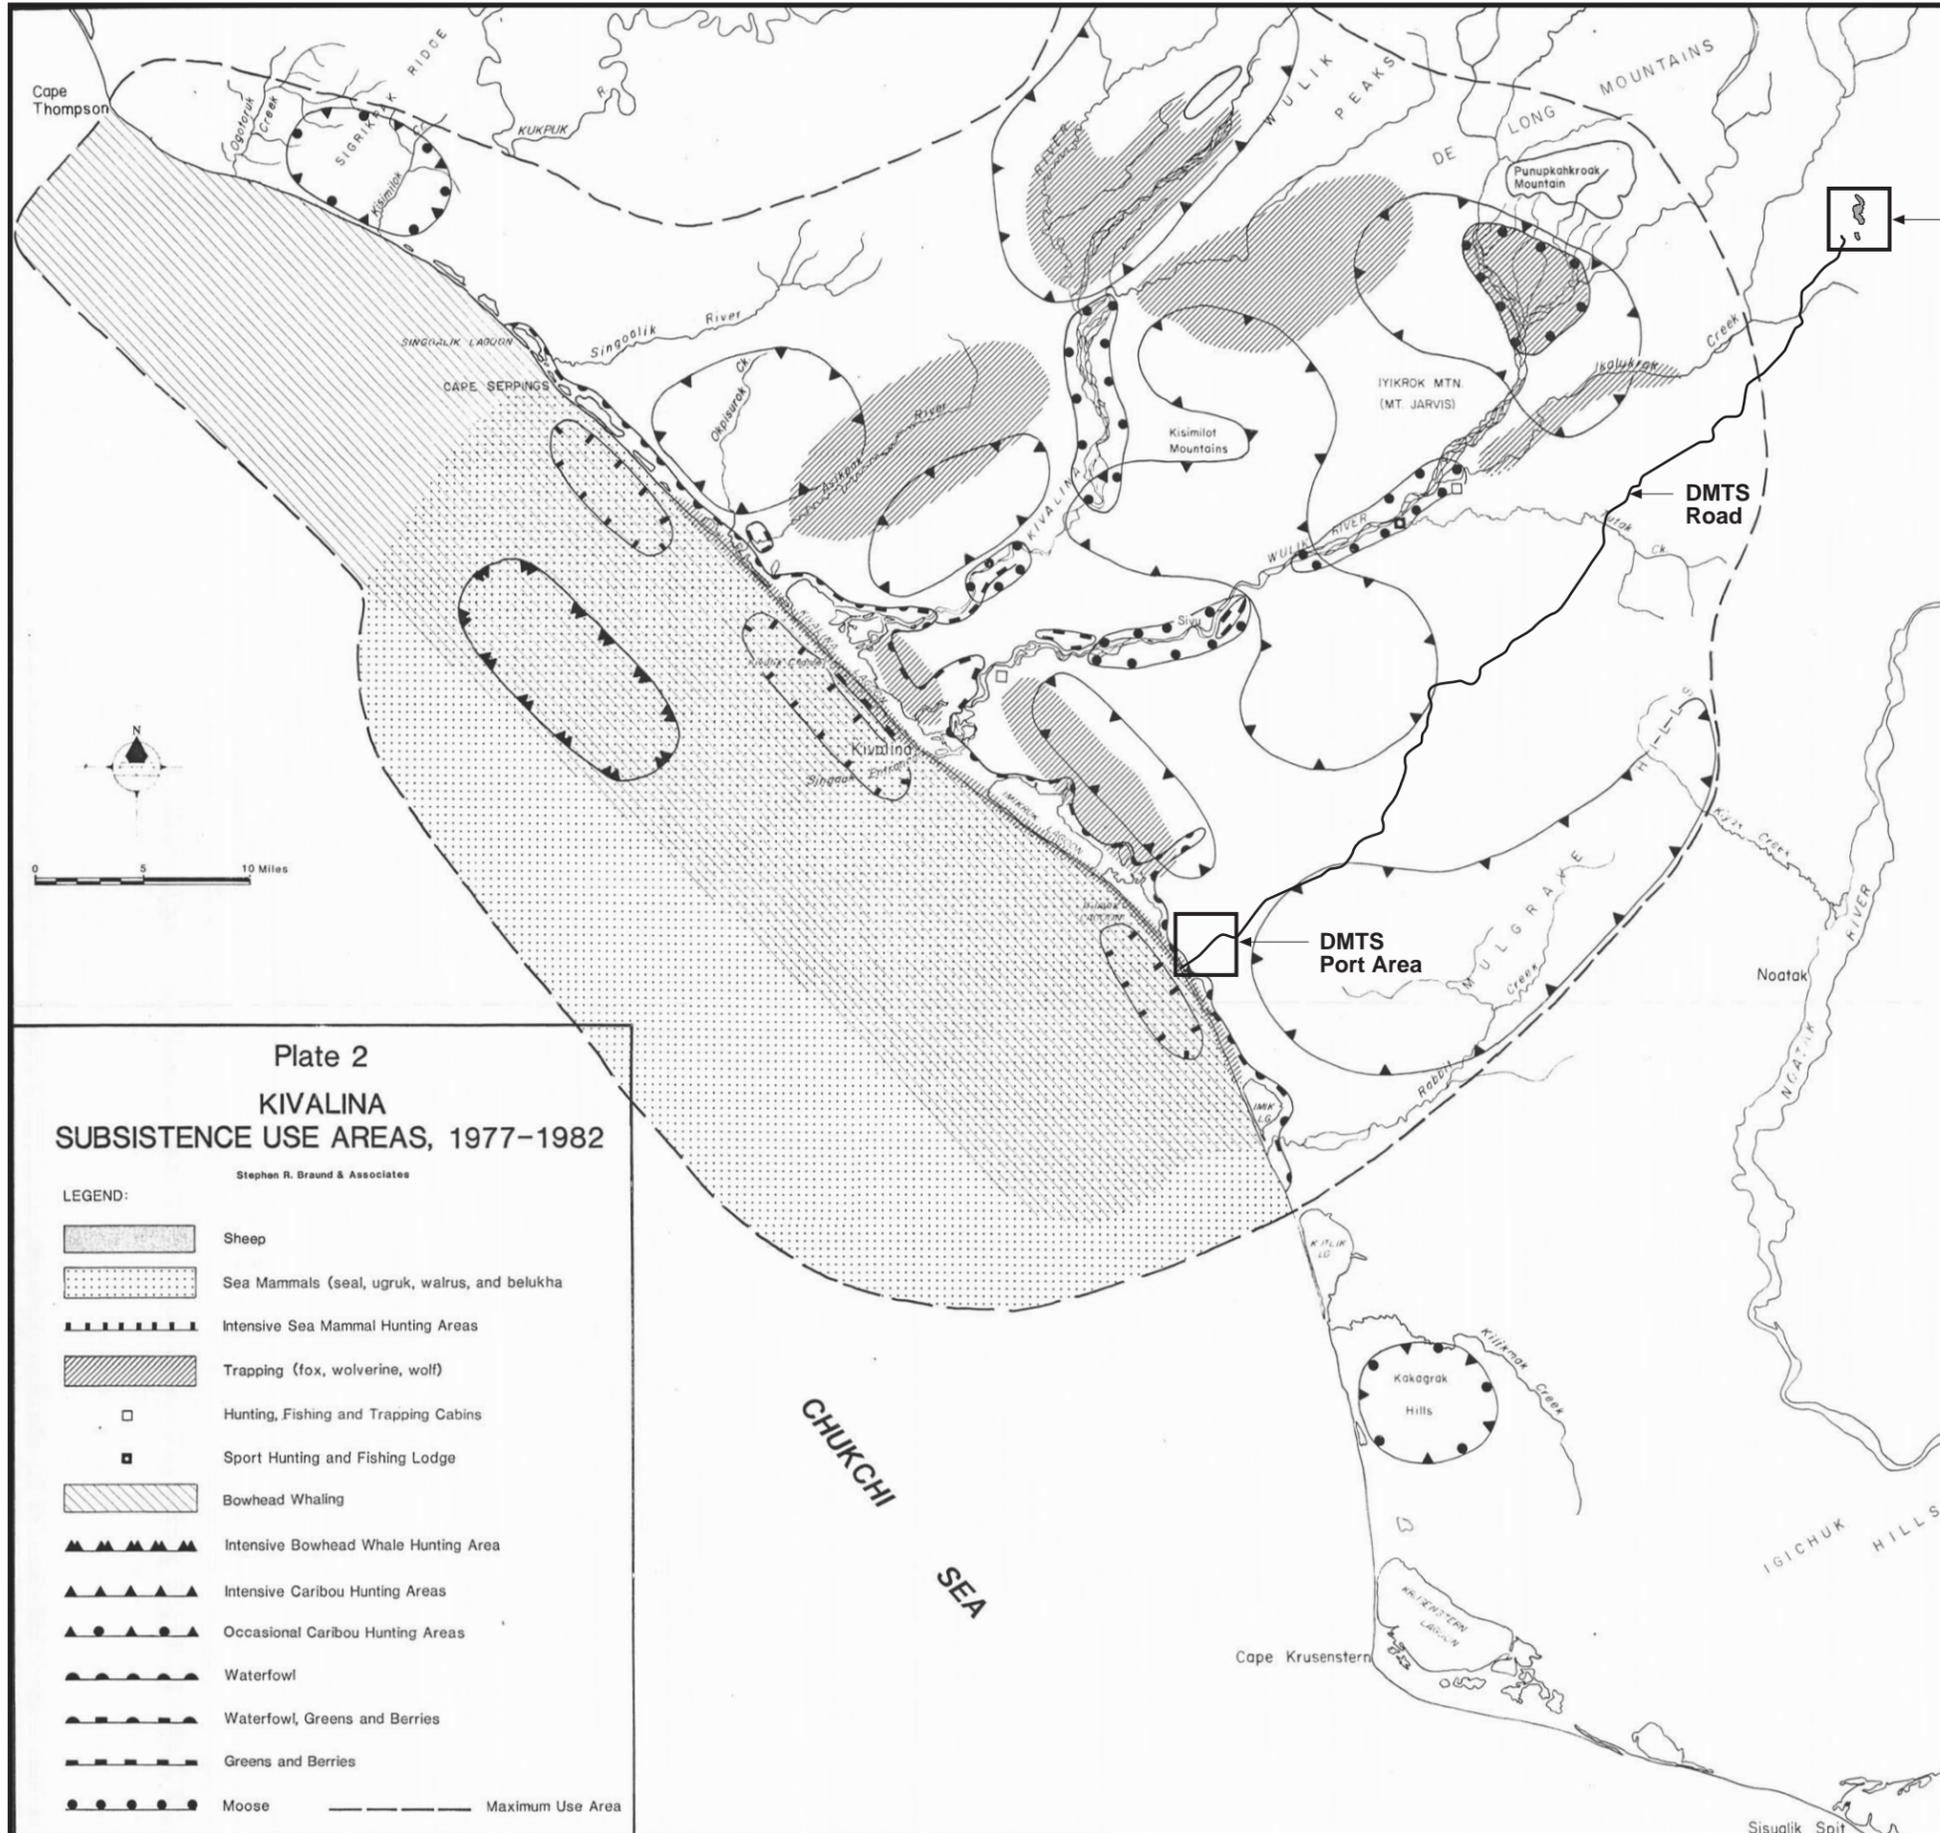

Figure 1-6. Land ownership and use map

Note: The Red Dog Mine and DMTS road and port are shown for reference. However, this figure depicts information prior to the existence of those facilities.

Source: Dames & Moore (1983)

Figure 1-7. Partial Noatak subsistence use areas, 1977-1982 (pre-mine)

Red Dog Mine Area

DMTS Road

DMTS Port Area

Plate 2
KIVALINA
SUBSISTENCE USE AREAS, 1977-1982

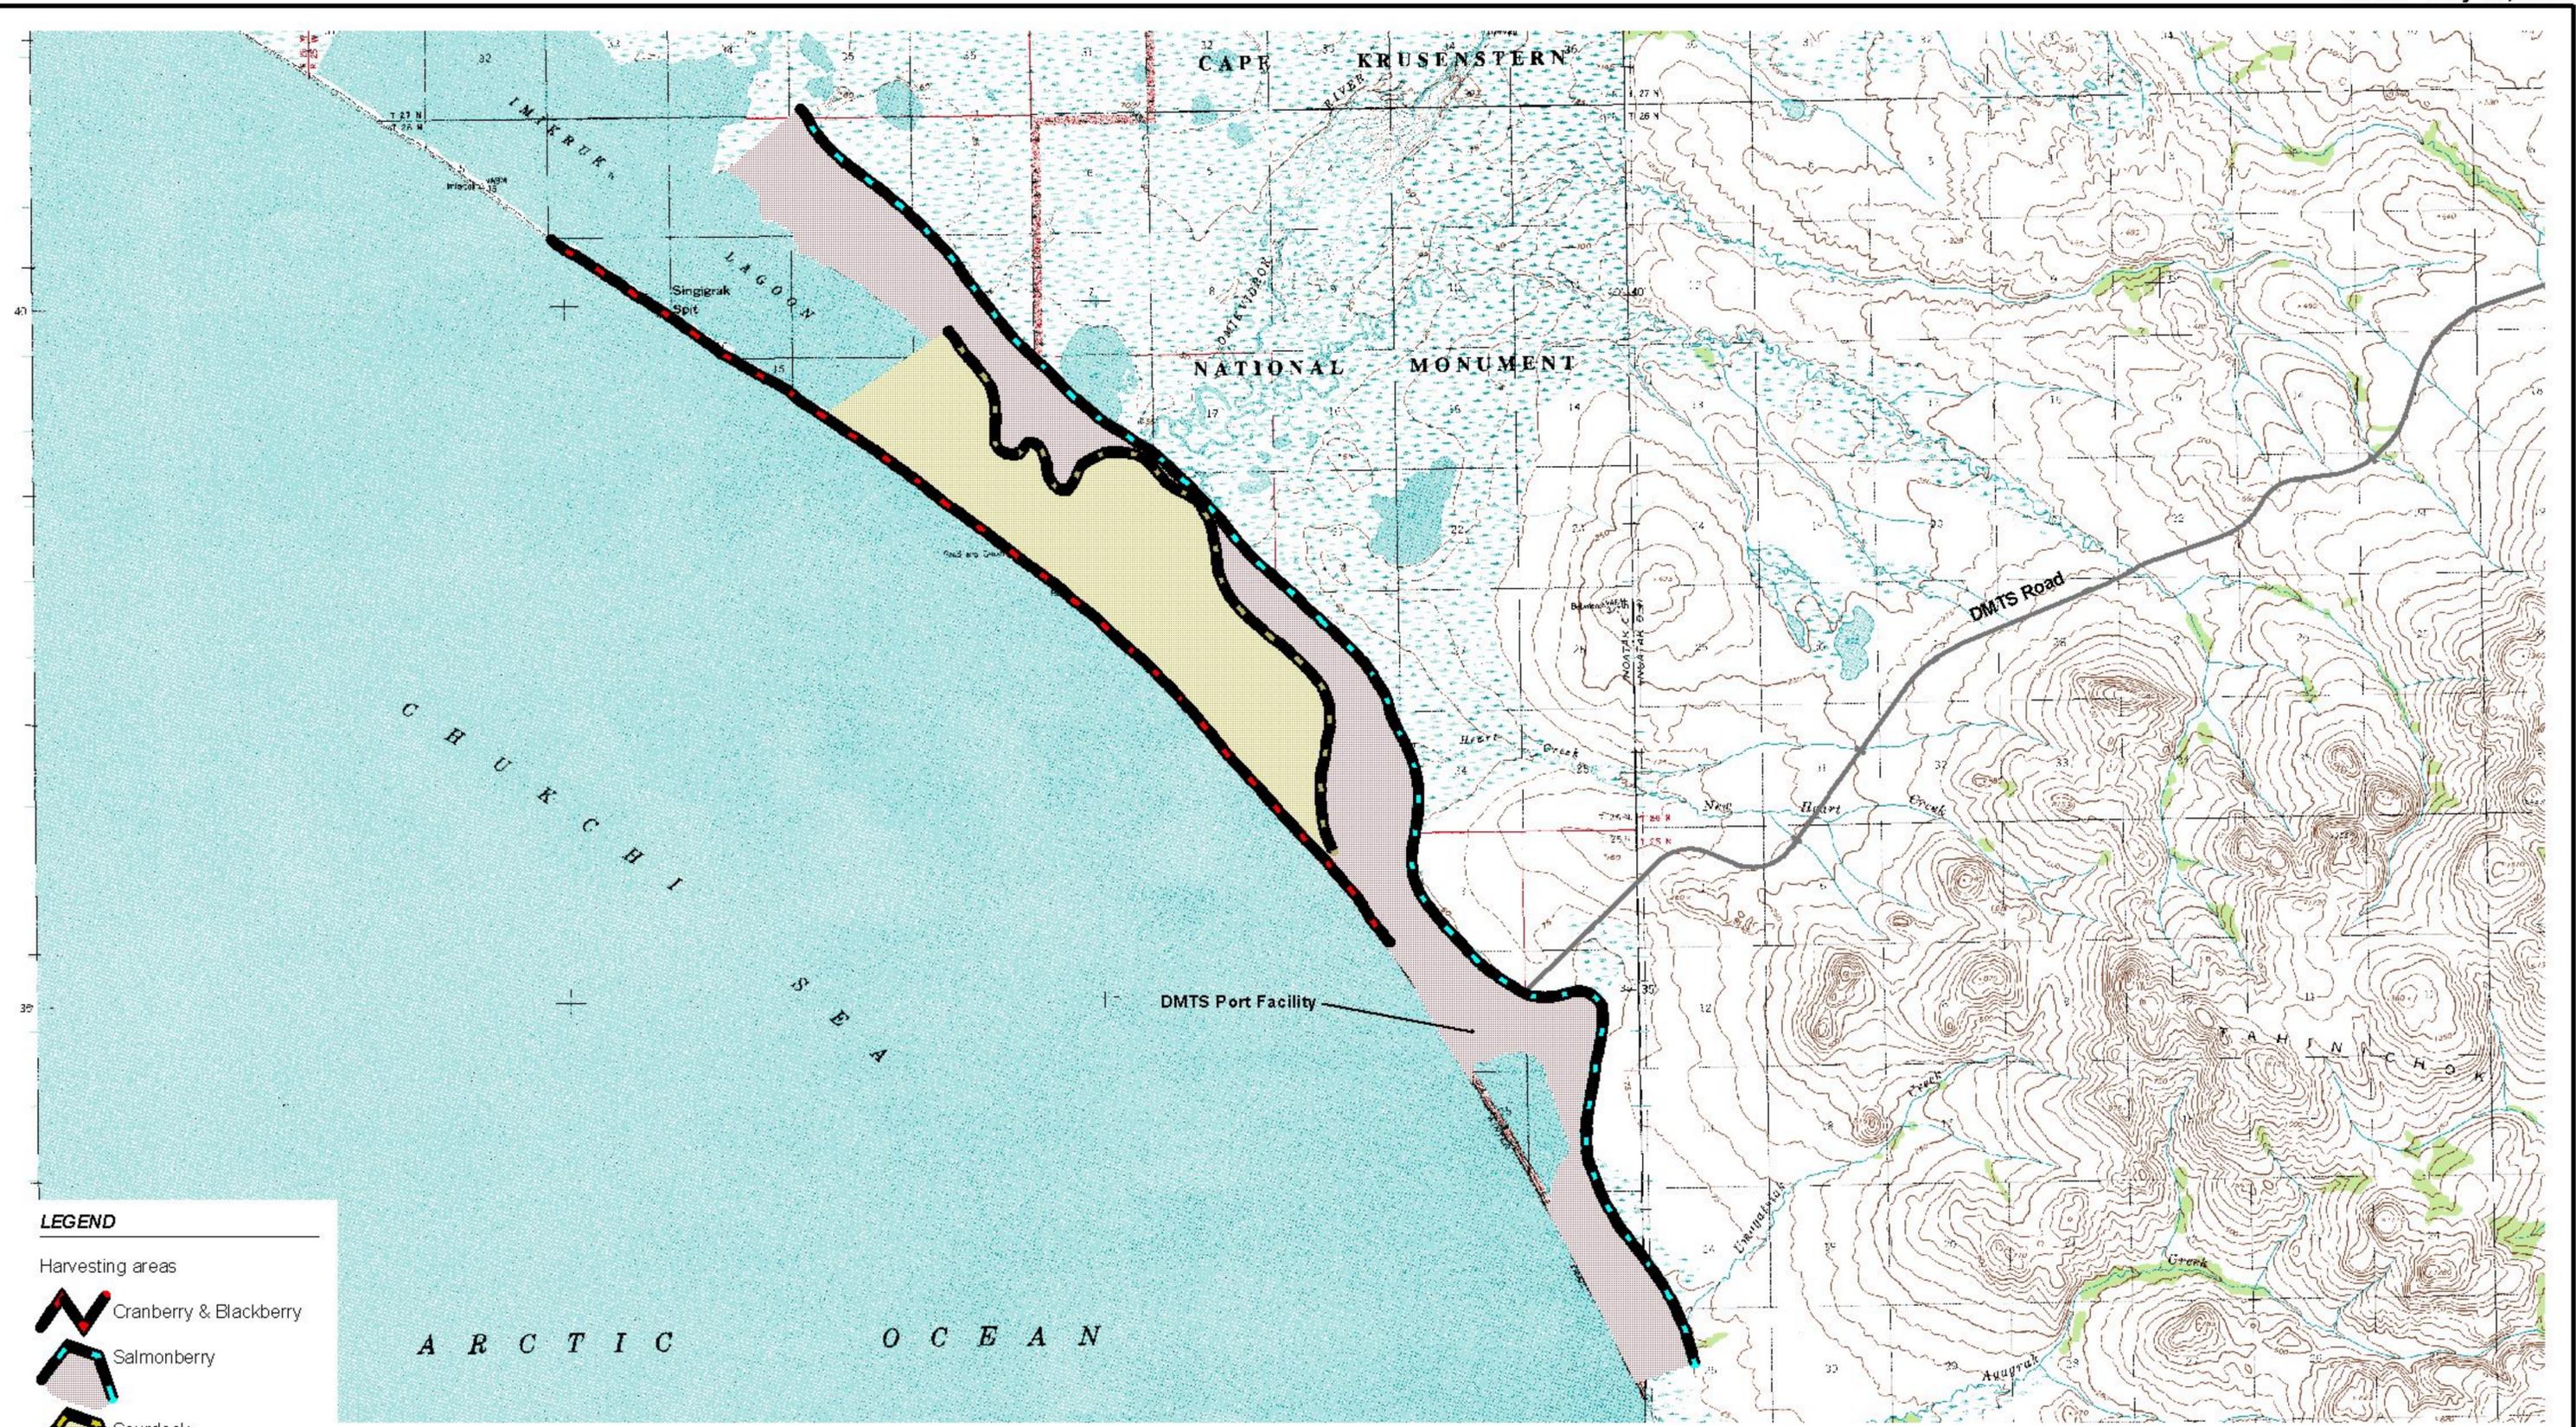

Stephen R. Braund & Associates

- LEGEND:
-  Sheep
 -  Sea Mammals (seal, ugruk, walrus, and belukha)
 -  Intensive Sea Mammal Hunting Areas
 -  Trapping (fox, wolverine, wolf)
 -  Hunting, Fishing and Trapping Cabins
 -  Sport Hunting and Fishing Lodge
 -  Bowhead Whaling
 -  Intensive Bowhead Whale Hunting Area
 -  Intensive Caribou Hunting Areas
 -  Occasional Caribou Hunting Areas
 -  Waterfowl
 -  Waterfowl, Greens and Berries
 -  Greens and Berries
 -  Moose
 -  Maximum Use Area

Note: The Red Dog Mine and DMTS road and port are shown for reference. However, this figure depicts information prior to the existence of those facilities.

Source: Dames & Moore (1983)

Figure 1-8. Kivalina subsistence use areas, 1977-1982 (pre-mine)

LEGEND

Harvesting areas

-  Cranberry & Blackberry
-  Salmonberry
-  Sourdock

Exponent[®]

Source: Glavinovich (2001)
Base map from USGS 1:63,360 quadrangles

Figure 1-9. Subsistence harvesting areas, 2001