

Geographic Response Strategy (GRS) Workshop

AGENDA

Sponsored by:

WORKSHOP

Date/Time:	March 12, 2015 / 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Location:	Assembly Chambers (Ground Level at Loussac Library) – 3600 Denali Street, Anchorage
Webinar Registration:	https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/974762502800179713
Teleconference Information:	1-800-315-6338 (Access Code: 97683)

Workshop Schedule

8:30 a.m.	Welcome and Introductions	Lisa Matlock
8:45 a.m.	GRS Background <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Program history • What are GRS? • How the program was developed in Alaska • How have GRS been selected/developed/approved • Issues that have arisen over the past 15 years 	Tim Robertson Mark Janes
9:45 a.m.	Break
10:00 a.m.	Emerging Issues <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Endangered Species Act (ESA) considerations • Integrating with other programs (e.g. drills, Community Spill Response Agreements, response equipment, outreach, and training...) • What will budgets allow? • GRS funding sources 	Gary Folley Rick Bernhardt
10:45 a.m.	Formatting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • GRS Webmap Demo • How can Webmap be incorporated • Australian Tactical Response Plans 	Sarah Moore Tim Robertson
11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.	Lunch Break – Lunch not provided
1:00 p.m.	Existing GRS Validation and Modification <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Testing existing GRS • Basic elements of site assessment • Site visit/deployment • Peer review process of most recent data and site evaluation • More cost effective methods 	Steve Russell
1:45 p.m.	Break
2:00 p.m.	GRS Standardization <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The need for a systematic approach <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Developing a standardized evaluation form or report ◦ Who collects the info and records lessons learned • How to guarantee the GRS process is used statewide • Process for updating evaluated strategies 	Rick Bernhardt
2:45 p.m.	The Path Forward <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review, consensus, non-consensus, and action items 	Tim Robertson Lisa Matlock
3:30 p.m.	Closing remarks around the room	Lisa Matlock
4:00 p.m.	Adjourn	