THE STATEWIDE ENVIRONMENTAL CRIMES UNIT IS SEEKING INFORMATION LEADING TO THE ARREST AND INDICTMENT OF THE INDIVIDUAL(S) INVOLVED IN THE ILLEGAL DUMPING OF APPROXIMATELY 600 GALLONS OF USED OIL DURING APRIL 2008.

On April 10, 2008 State law enforcement officers received a report of six abandoned 55 gallon waste oil drums at the end of South Cushman Street near the banks of the Tanana River. The preliminary investigation disclosed that the drums were shot numerous times with several different calibers which resulted in an estimated 300 gallons of waste oil spilling onto the surrounding area. On April 21, 2008 six additional drums riddled with bullet holes and waste oil covering the surrounding area were discovered between Goose Lake and the Tanana River off of South Cushman Street. Damage is estimated at approximately $60,000.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1,000.00 for information leading to the arrest and indictment of the individuals(s) involved in the illegal dumping of approximately 600 gallons of used oil during April 2008.

The Statewide Environmental Crimes Unit is asking that anyone with information regarding this case to contact the ECU at 451-5157/451-2148 or Fairbanks Crime Stoppers at 456-CLUE (456-2583).
