

ANTHC
Tribal Response Program
Copper Valley School

Kimberly Smith
Brownfield Coordinator
Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium
kjsmith@anthc.org
907-729-3498

ANTHC TRP

- Received Brownfield grant in 2010
- Began outreach to communities during routine visits
- Limited resources available at ANTHC
 - Partnerships required
- Prioritized by researching ADEC TBAs in our region

➤ Bigger toolbox

➤ Partners

➤ Momentum

Beginning

- YouTube Video by a community member
- State of AK involvement
- Native Village of Tazlina applied for assessment

CVS

Copper Valley School

- PACP, May 2010
- Letters of support
 - Archdiocese of Anchorage
 - Copper Country Alliance
 - Copper Valley Development Association
 - Native Village of Tazlina
 - Kenny Lake Soil and Water Conservation District
 - Ahtna, Incorporated

ADEC & EPA

- Partnerships to raise awareness
- Targeted Brownfields Assessment
- EPA & Army Corps of Engineers
- Vision to Action
- CRNA, Bill Hand

Intro to Brownfields 101

Partnership Progress

- February 2011- gave presentation at Alaska Forum on Environment
- May 2011- Posters at National Conference in Philadelphia
- June 2011- Brownfield 101 Workshop
- June 2011- Copper Valley School passed a Resolution to work with ANTHC
- August 2011- Vision-to-Action in Tazlina
- August 2011- Interviews with Alumni
- August 2011- Bill & I conducted inventories in Copper Valley
- November 2011- Vision-to-Action rendering revealed
- Movie

Partnerships

ADEC
Brownfields

EPA

Native Village of Tazlina (elders,
Tribal Council)

AHTNA

Copper River
Native
Association

Copper Valley
Environmental Organizations

Copper Valley
School Alumni

ANTHC
Brownfields

Army Corps of Engineers

Brownfields in ASU

Thank you

