

Joseph Hunter

Contingency plan should have a new position for these gas stations, grocery stores and parking. A position with 40 hour hazwopper trained to remediate parts of the waste from vehicle exhaust or drips of gas/diesel. Walking from the parking lot to the entrance, I see multiple colorful stains in various locations even parks. We already have warm weather, with the possibilites of these leaks causing it.

