

Judy Crondahl

Alaska had a devastating oil spill in 1989. We need the current oil spill prevention and response rules to remain in place to prevent another devastating disaster. We must protect our other resources such as fisheries and tourism from harm, too.