The crew of the F/V vacated the vessel to shore and walked to Karluk. The owner and operator of F/V Donna Ann reported that his last sight of vessel indicated high surf was crashing through the wheelhouse.

ADEC spill responders are en route to Kodiak and shall meet with U.S. Coast Guard personnel tomorrow to investigate the vessel grounding and assess its condition. Transportation for the USCG and ADEC spill responders to the grounding site is not available until August 21, 2003 due to required maintenance for U.S. Coast Guard helicopters. Commercial helicopters are currently unavailable.

SOURCE CONTROL: Unknown until vessel assessment tomorrow by both U.S. Coast Guard and ADEC. The proposed plan is to attempt off load the fuel from the F/V to drums. This plan is dependent upon the vessel's condition and sea conditions.
